

CONFIDENTIAL

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Plans and Policy Staff

23 January 1958

SUBJECT : Intelligence School Weekly Report #3
17 January through 23 January

I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS: None

II. OTHER ACTIVITIES:

A. Intelligence Orientation

(1) Intelligence Orientation #17 concluded on 17 January. It was the opinion of the faculty that this group has been the most receptive, interested, and responsive in several months. The exam results reflected this opinion - there were no failures, and the highest percentage of "Excellent" ratings among the last eight courses.

(2) [redacted] Chief, Supplemental Programs Division, will lecture for the Office of Communications in the February course. This will be the first Course presentation in the IO.

(3) Exhibits

(a) The Support Exhibit on 15 January featured a new presentation by the Central Processing Branch, Office of Personnel.

(b) The Office of Operations' new exhibit was presented for the first time on 16 January. Improvements were also made in the ARS exhibit.

(c) A completely new OSI exhibit is being readied for presentation in February.

(d) OSI offices have been notified of the February exhibit open to IAC visitors.

(4) On 21 January [redacted] of the Office of Communications gave a thorough orientation briefing to members of the IO staff. The IO staff is scheduled to receive briefings on [redacted] Intelligence, the Operations Coordinating Board, and the [redacted] the week.

(5) The IO staff met with [redacted] the ARS Staff on 21 January for a final review of the proposed revision of the IO examination. The revision will be completed in time for the February course.

SEE REVERSE FOR DECLASSIFICATION ACTIONS-S-E-C-R-E-T

CONFIDENTIAL

Next 2 Page(s) In Document Exempt